The Sports Year at North Dallas

The 1952 North Dallas football team completed one of the most successful seasons it had experienced in many years. In pre-season play the Bulldogs defeated Waxahachie, San Jacinto of Houston, North Side of Fort Worth, and Greenville. Then the N.D. team fell to a powerful eleven from Highland Park. An inspired Woodrow Wilson team, with its full starting lineup in for the first time in the season, handed the Bulldogs their second straight defeat. As the Bulldogs met Adamson, it looked as if they would be on the short end of the score again, but trailing by 14 points in the second quarter, they exploded in a furious four minute flurry to score three touchdowns and win by a score of 19-14. Not to be defeated again, N.D. romped over Sunset, Forest, and Tech. North Dallas became City Champion in a tie with Adamson by virtue of Woodrow Wilson's two losses. Woodrow lost to Adamson in a thrilling game with Adamson's winning touchdown coming in the last minute and half of play, and then lost to Sunset. Because the Bulldogs had won over Adamson, they were the team to represent Dallas in the state race. Their first game of the playoffs was with North Side, whom they had defeated earlier, in pre-season play. In the Bi-District game the Bulldogs smashed North Side by a score of 27-6, to advance to the Semi-Finals. A powerful team from Lubbock, destined to be the State Champions for the second consecutive year, defeated the Dallasites.

The Bulldogs also proved their merit in basketball. The cagers placed third in the city race, winning five out of ten games. They scored two victories over Adamson and Woodrow, and one victory over Forest. They lost twice to Sunset and Tech and once to Forest. Leading the city in scoring was Mike Easterling, the Bulldogs All-City team member. At the close of this year's schedule, prospects were bright for next year's season.

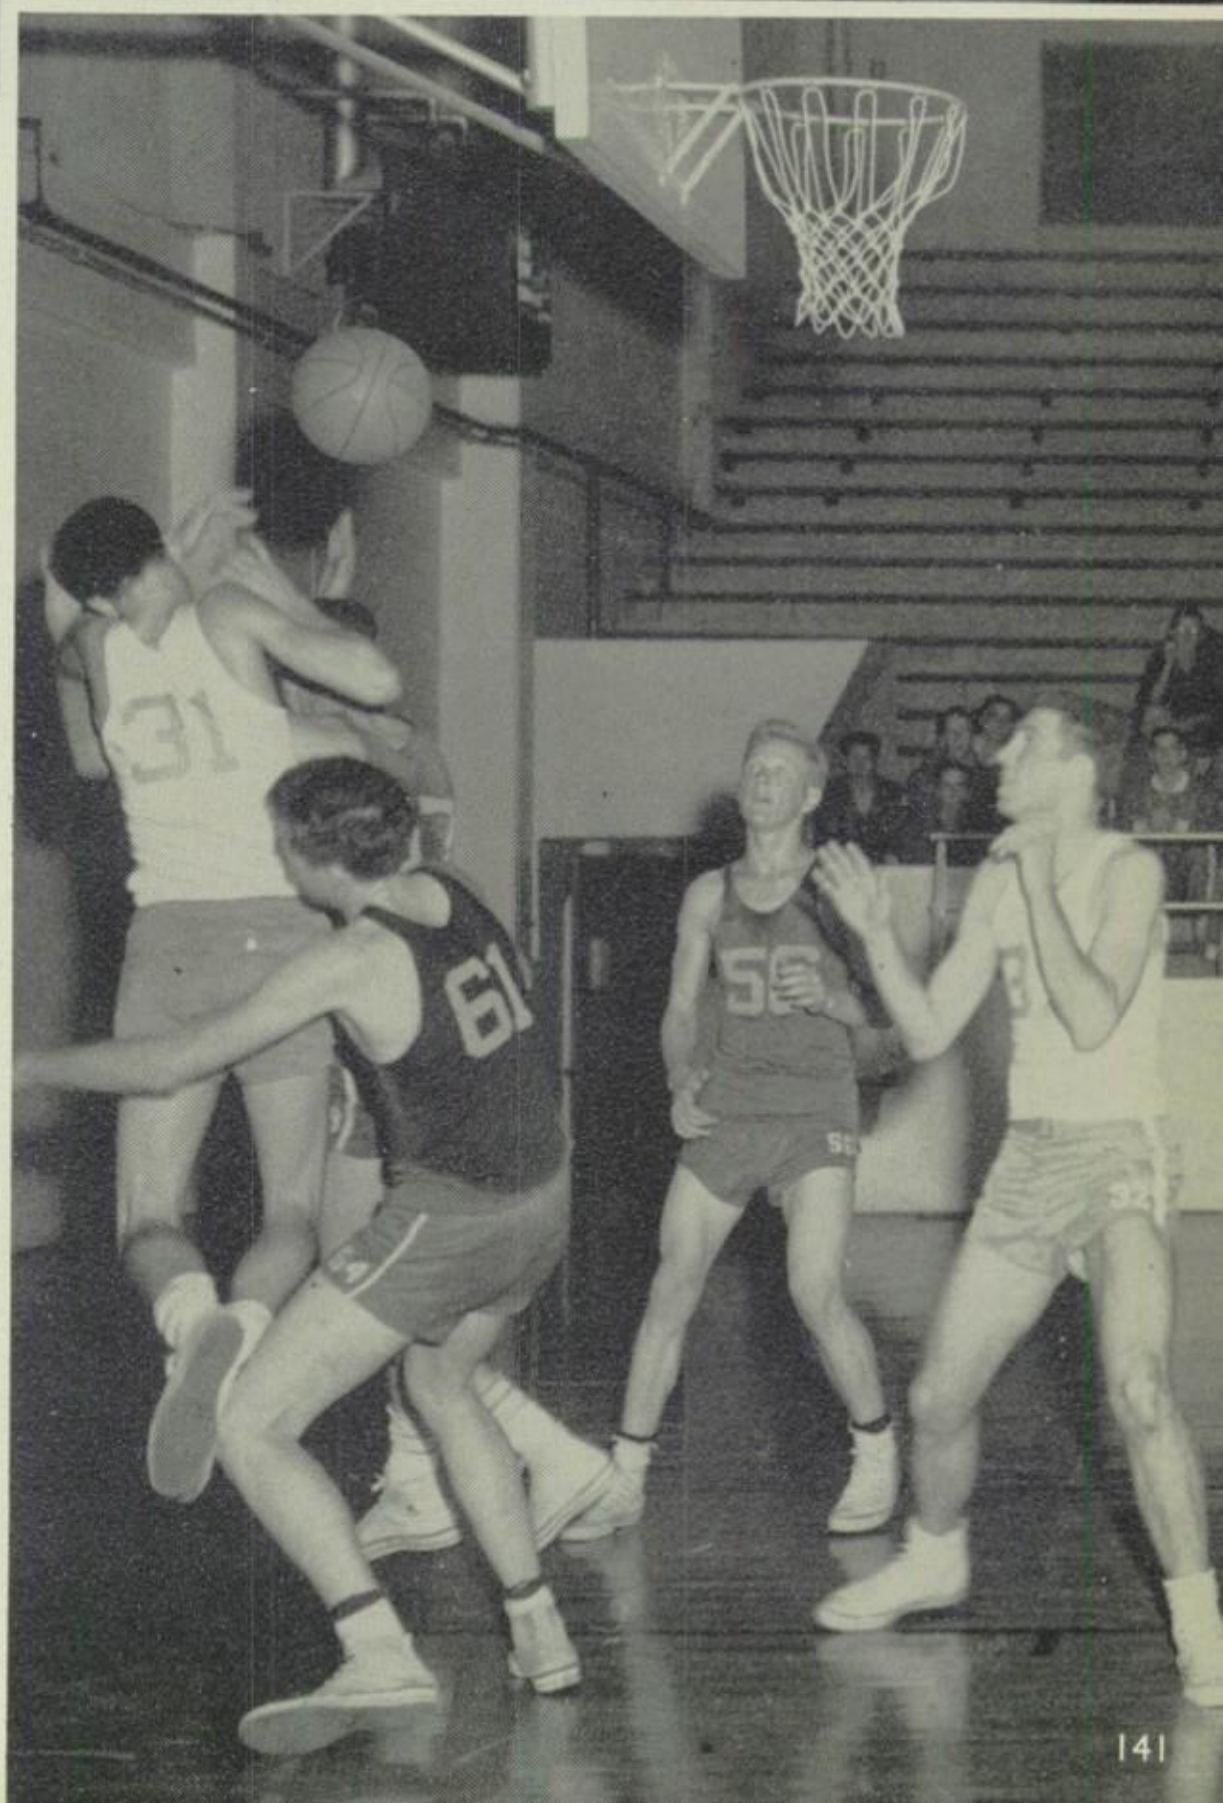
George Cole goes in for a lay up shot during the Woodrow game. Easterling, far left, and Rogers, 36 of the Bulldogs, watch.

THE LAST POINT

Harvey Kitchens, 35 sinks the last point of the first game with Adamson. Other N.D. players are Easterling, far left in white, Millet 32, and Board, 30.



SMASH-UP

The ball seems to have the attention of everyone but the players directly below it. Bulldog players are: Mike Easterling, 31, and Billy Millet, 32.

Right: Bob Burgess, 29, Mike Easterling, 34, and an unidentified N.D. player battle for the ball. A nose, leg, and two arms which belong to George Cole protrude from the right.

Below: Easterling shys away from the ball while Board, the Bulldog near the camera, very nonchalantly observes.

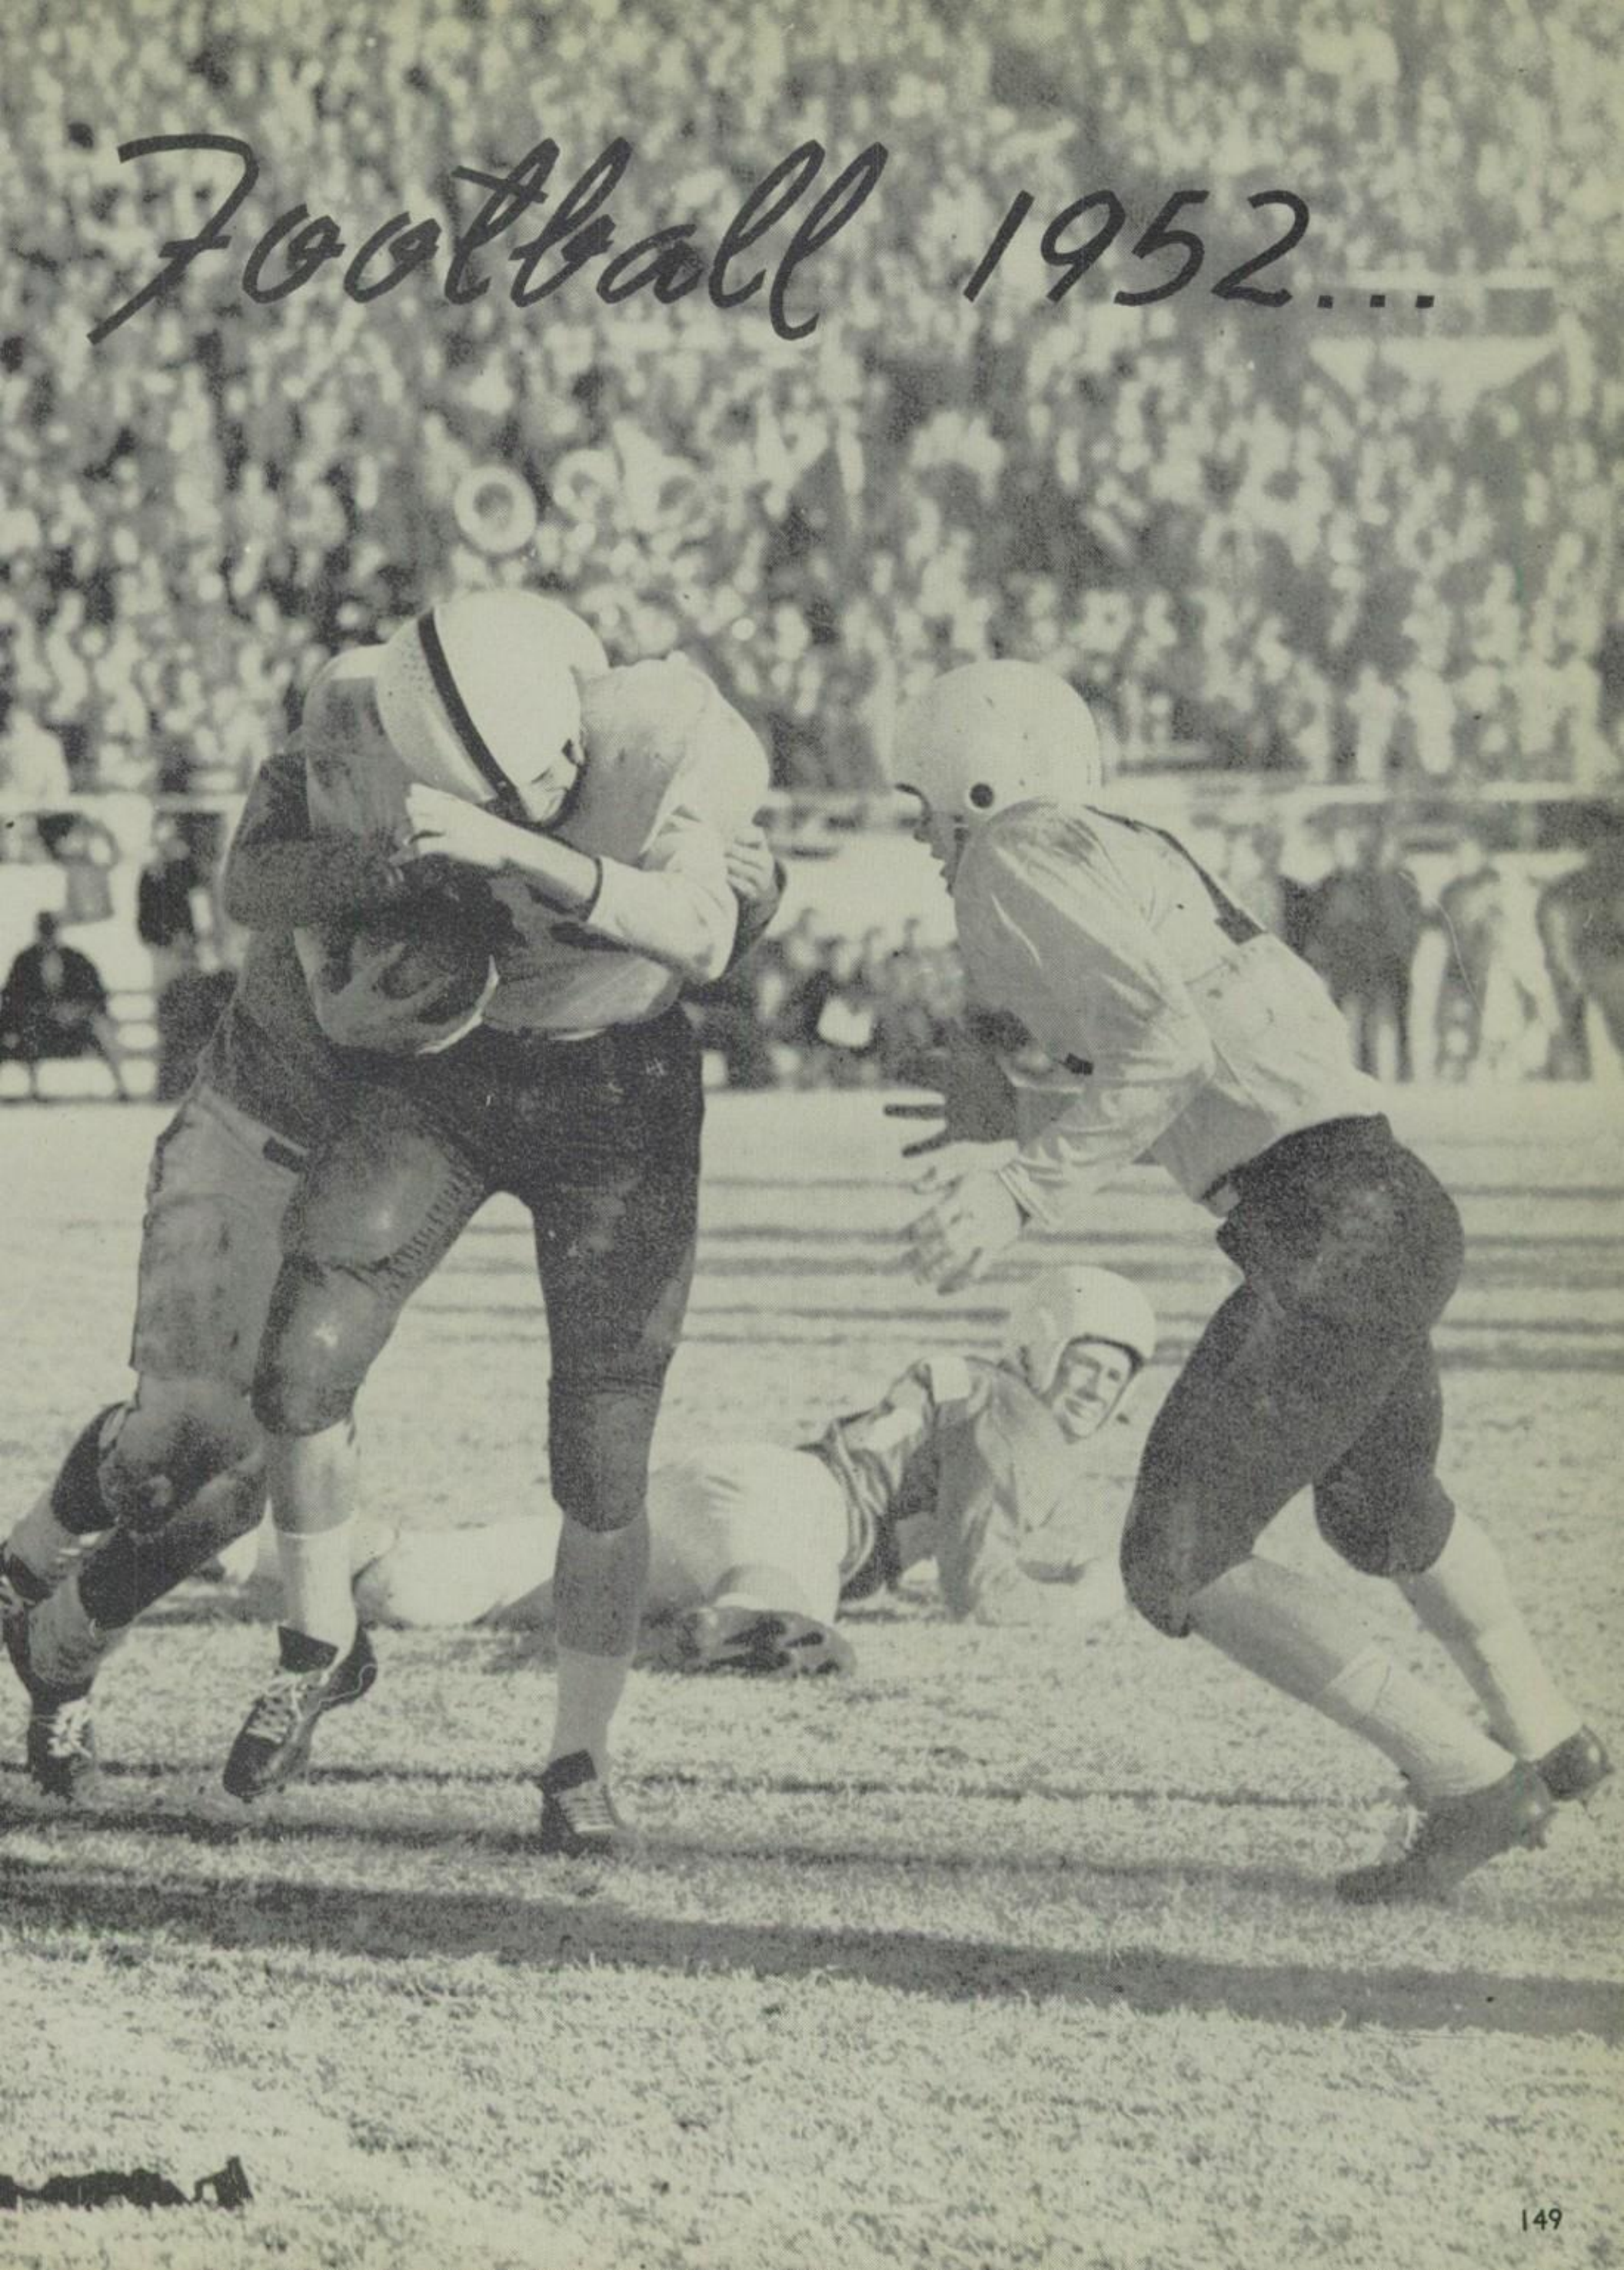
Football 1952...



The students whoop it up on the chartered bus.

THE BULLDOGS INVADE HOUSTON

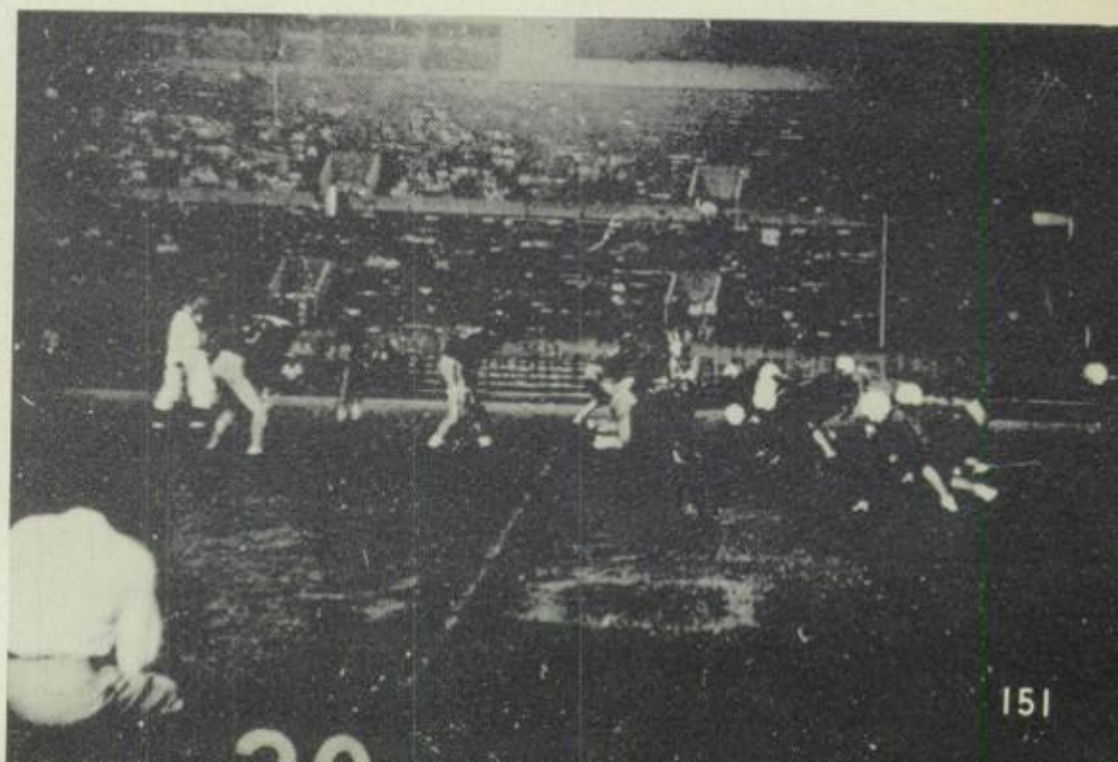
The team and some students went by chartered bus, the band and pep squad went by train, and other students by private car—but all in all there were some 250 Bulldogs in the stands to cheer N.D. to its 13-12 victory over the Golden (but a bit rusty) Bears of San Jacinto.

Above: Peggy Earthman presents a corsage to Miss Sparks on the Houston-bound train.

Right: After a refreshing time out at the Houston zoo the band forms before leaving for the stadium. Tony De Haro expresses his feelings for San Jac.

"Hurrah for the Bulldogs!" shouts the pep squad en route to the stadium by chartered bus.

Cheerleaders Bruce Cunningham and Ed Copley proudly carry the Bulldog banner as the team takes the field.



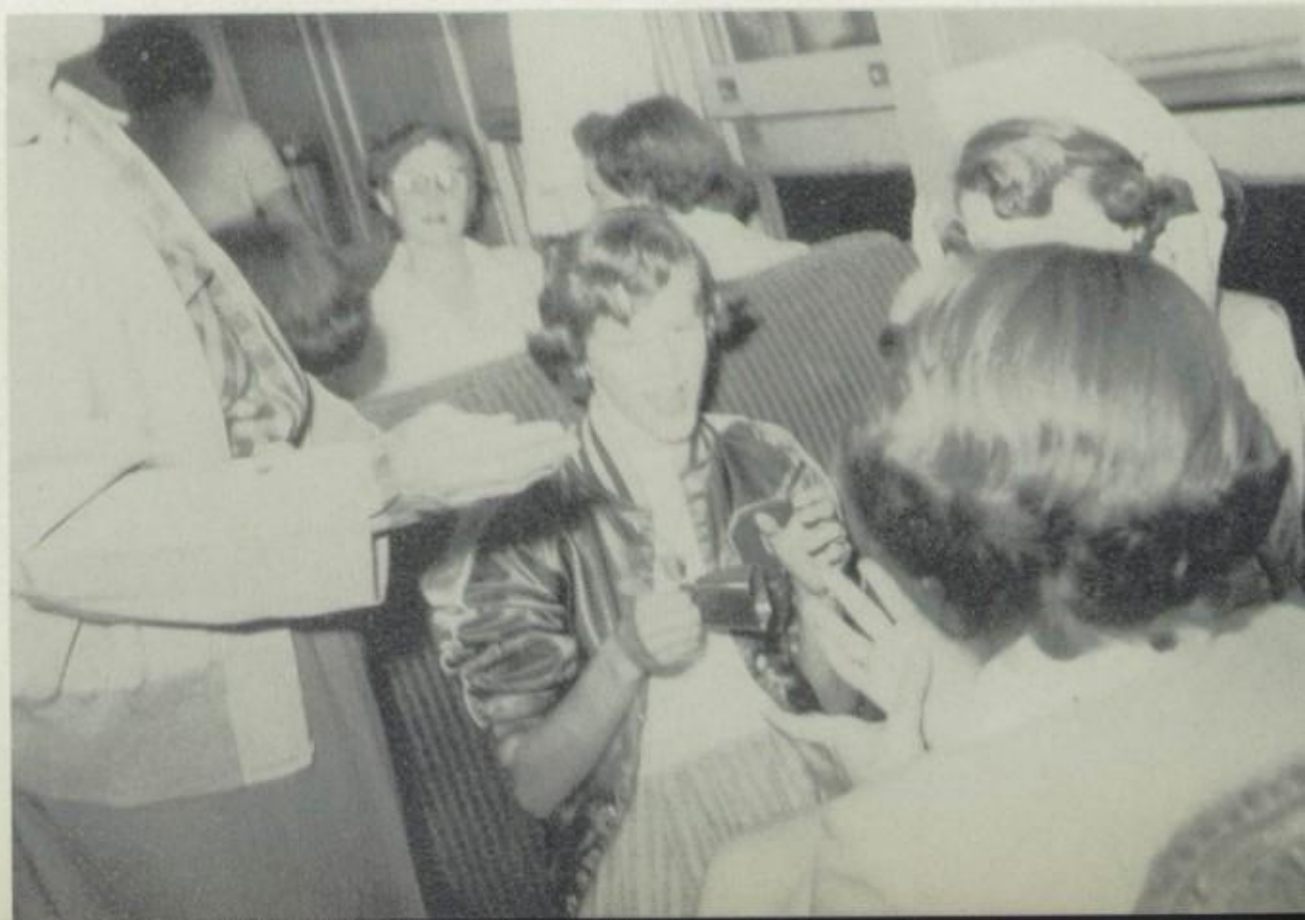
The N.D. gridders make the long trip worthwhile by going on to win, 13-12.

NORTH DALLAS 28

GREENVILLE 6

N.D. rocks the rafters with a rousing pre-game pep assembly.

The Bulldogs go all out to show their support. Nearly 700 N.D. fans jam-pack a chartered train . . .

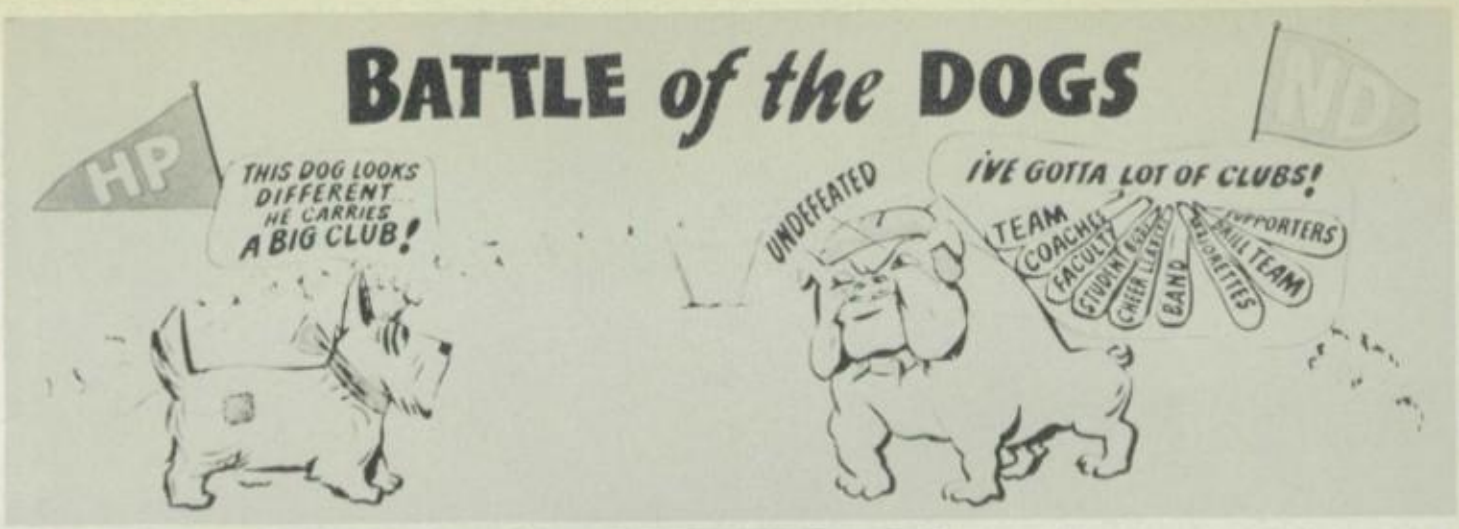


. . . and they all have a hilarious time, especially Mr. Harris and his joy-buzzer.

End David Kingcaid scores another North Dallas T.D.

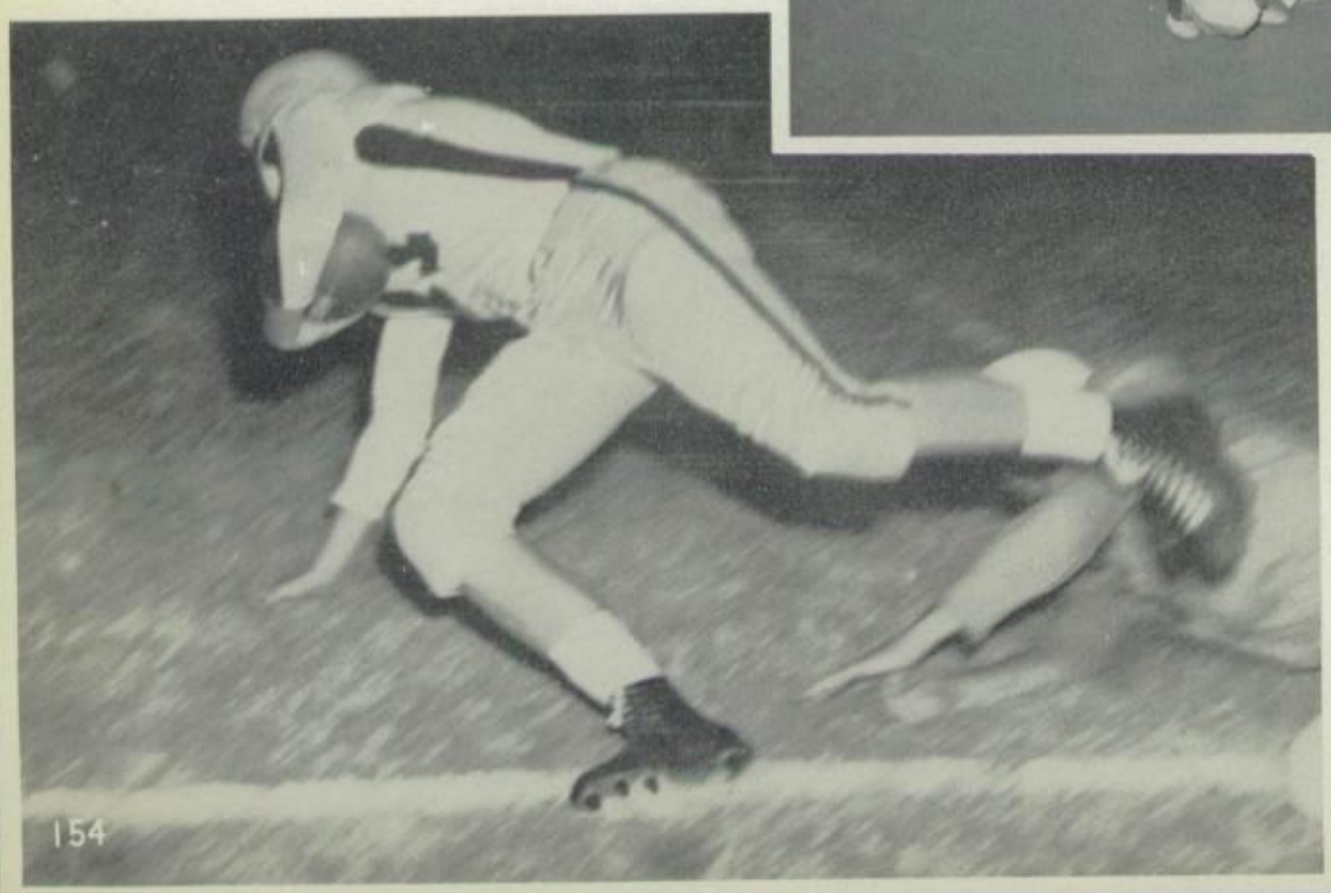
Bill Allen and Patsy Jones typify the tired but happy spirit of the whole gang on the home-bound train . . .

. . . but, back at the Hi Park Station, the cheerleaders succeed in waking up everyone (including half of Highland Park) with a midnight victory rally.



O.S.'s pep posters add color to the pre-game rally.

Cheerleaders warm up the Bulldog rooters just before kicking off the thirty-two car parade from N.D. to Highlander Stadium.



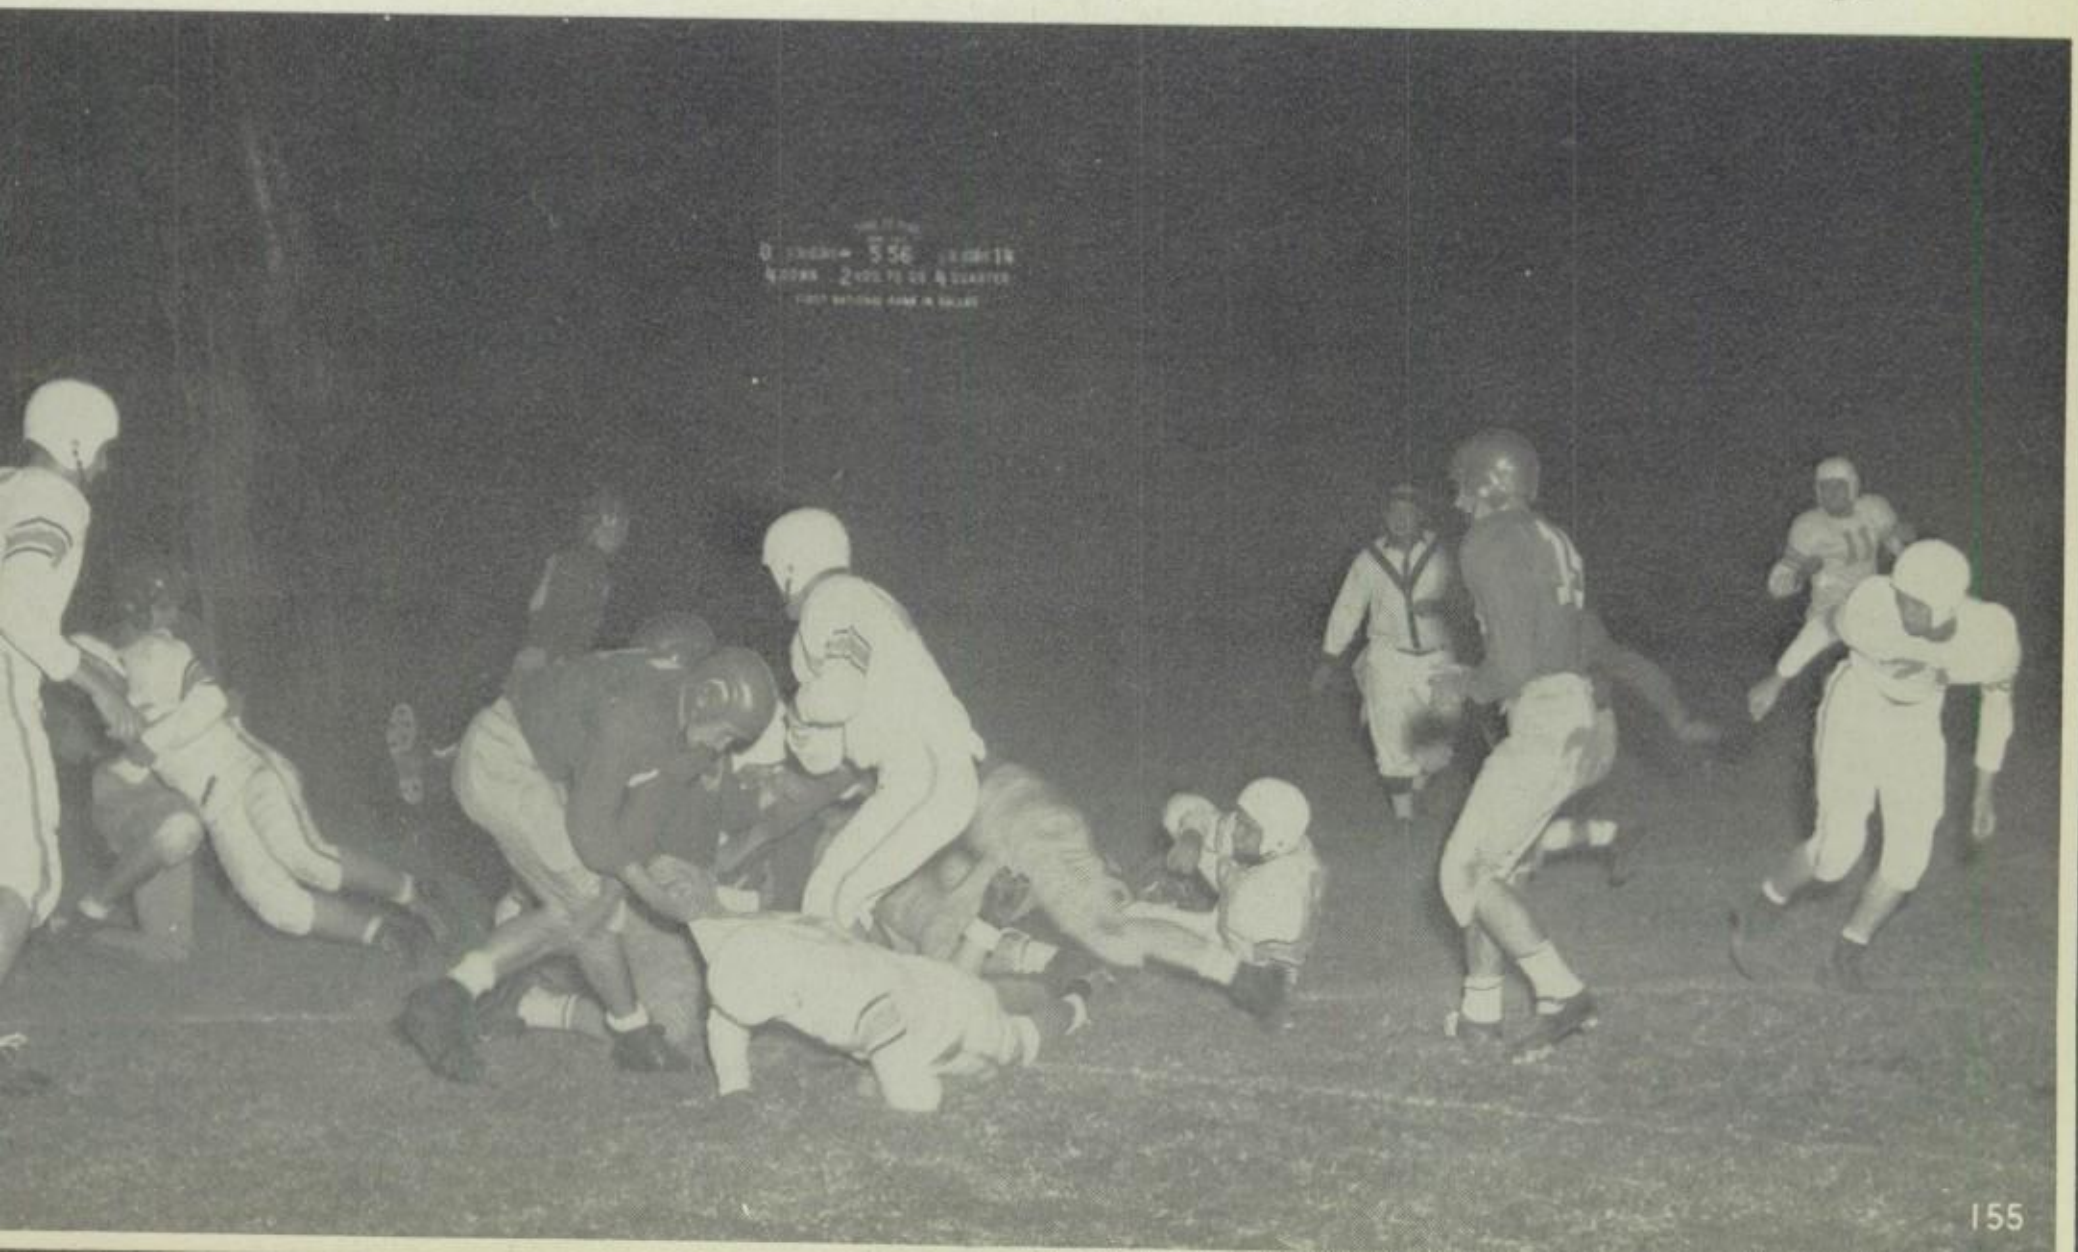
H. P. is smeared on the sideline in a tense moment of play.

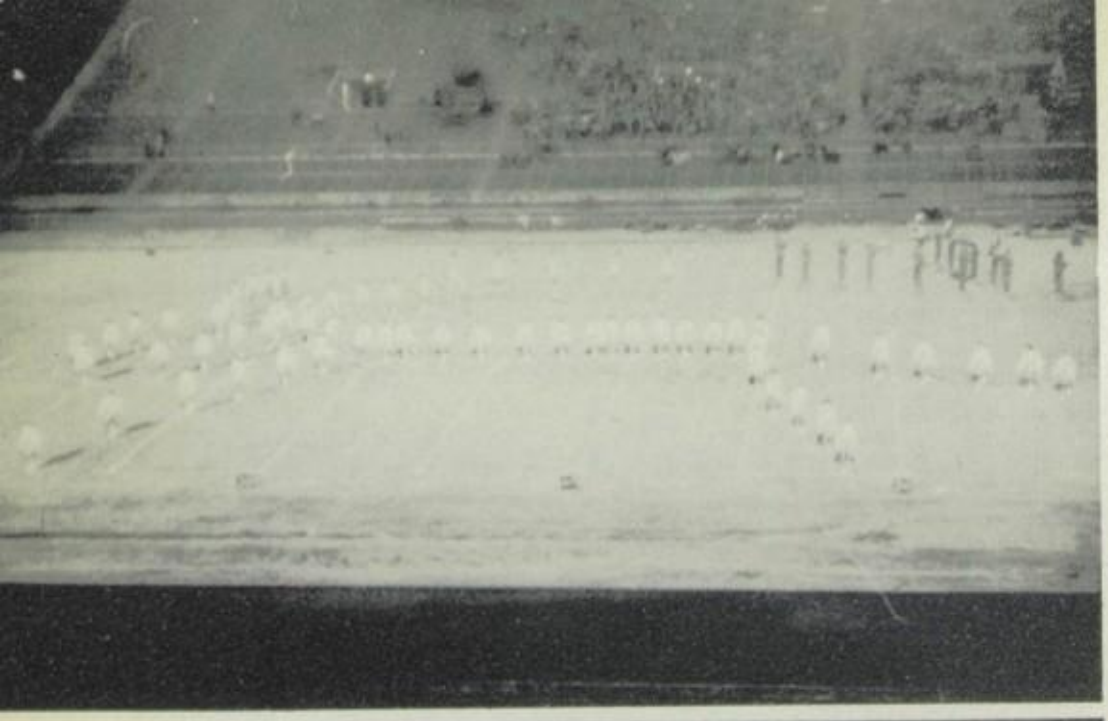
"Hello, Woodrow . . . you here too???"

Shouts of "We like Ike!" and "Yea Bulldogs!" rock the rafters of the Hall of State across the street from an Adlai Stevenson rally.

NORTH DALLAS—6 WOODROW WILSON—26

A hard-fought game ends in disappointment for the Bulldogs.

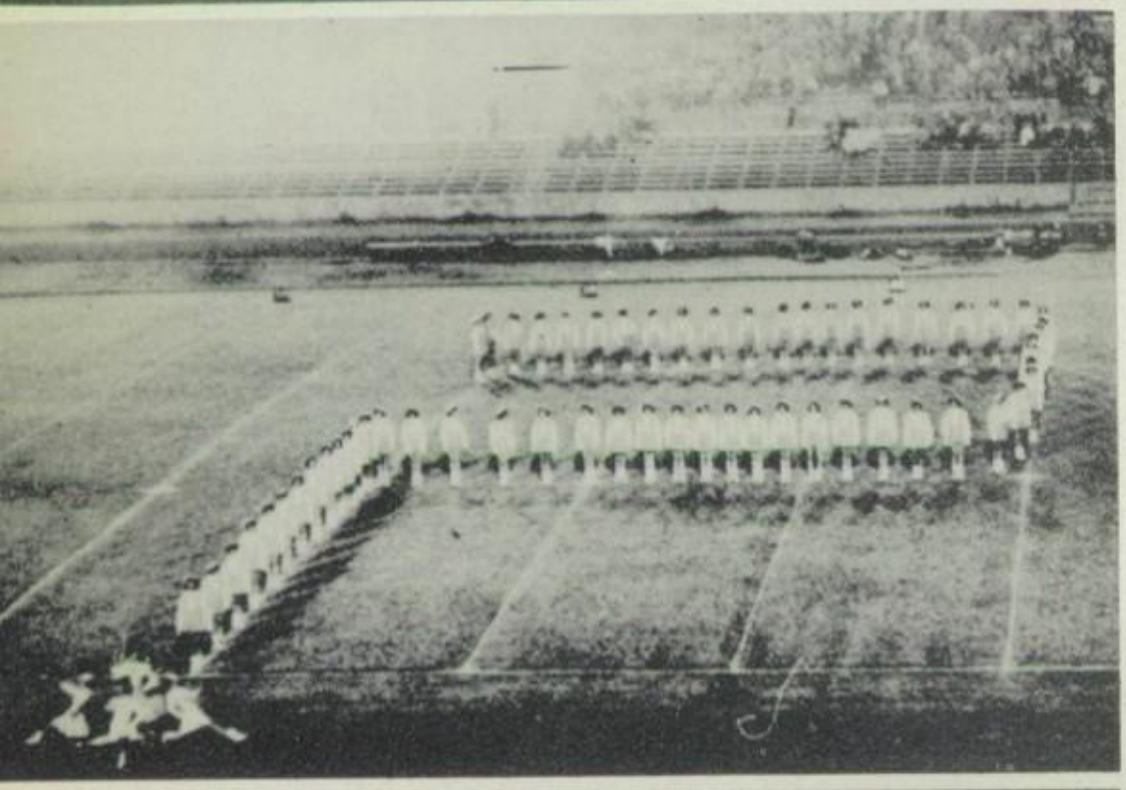




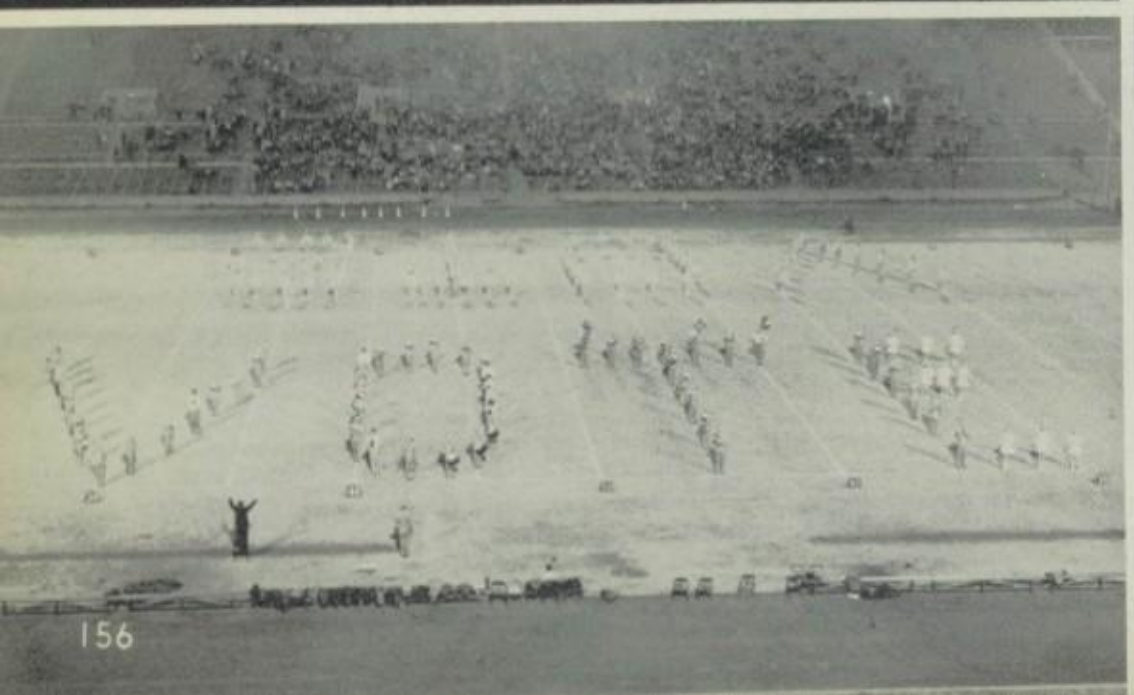
NORTH DALLAS—13 SUNSET—0

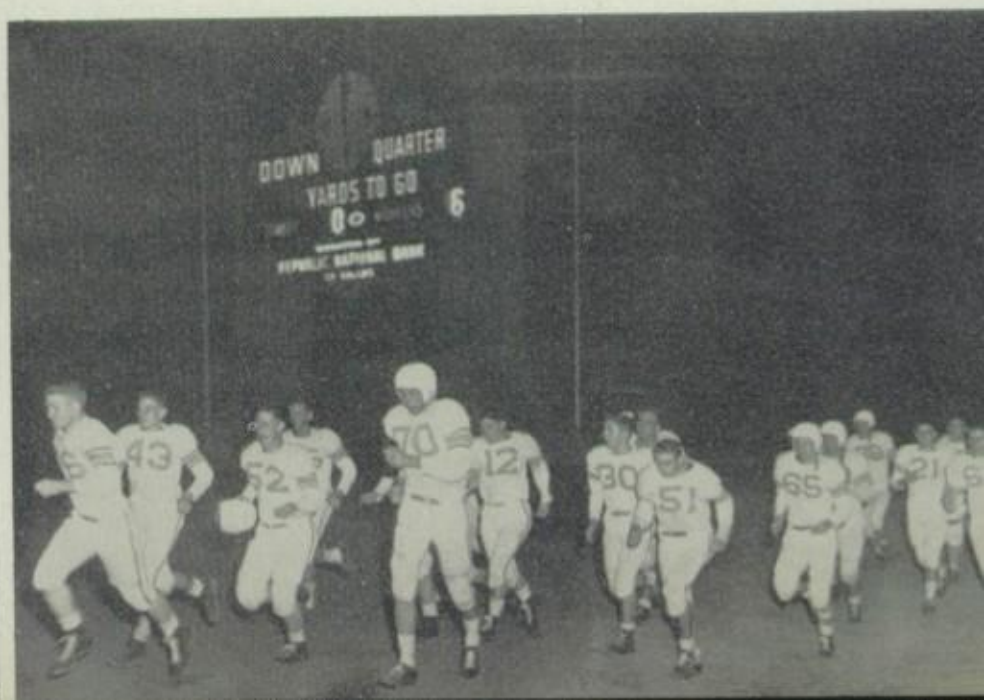
Politics rears its ugly head in one of the most unusual (and timely) half-time performances of the season.

First, a donkey is formed to represent the Democratic Party; then IKE, honoring the Republican candidate; a question mark, signifying the uncertainty of the outcome of the election; and finally, a reminder to all to pick their cadidate and vote.



Below: Determined to protect their six-point lead, the Bulldogs take the field at the start of the second half.





NORTH DALLAS—39 TECH—0

Tech weeps . . .

. . . while Bulldog fans whoop it up. Lower left: Bert Jarvis stands out in the cheering section with his moose horn.

Lower right: Nothing like a good hamburger and jam session—after watching North Dallas chalk up another victory.

NORTH DALLAS—27

NORTH SIDE—6

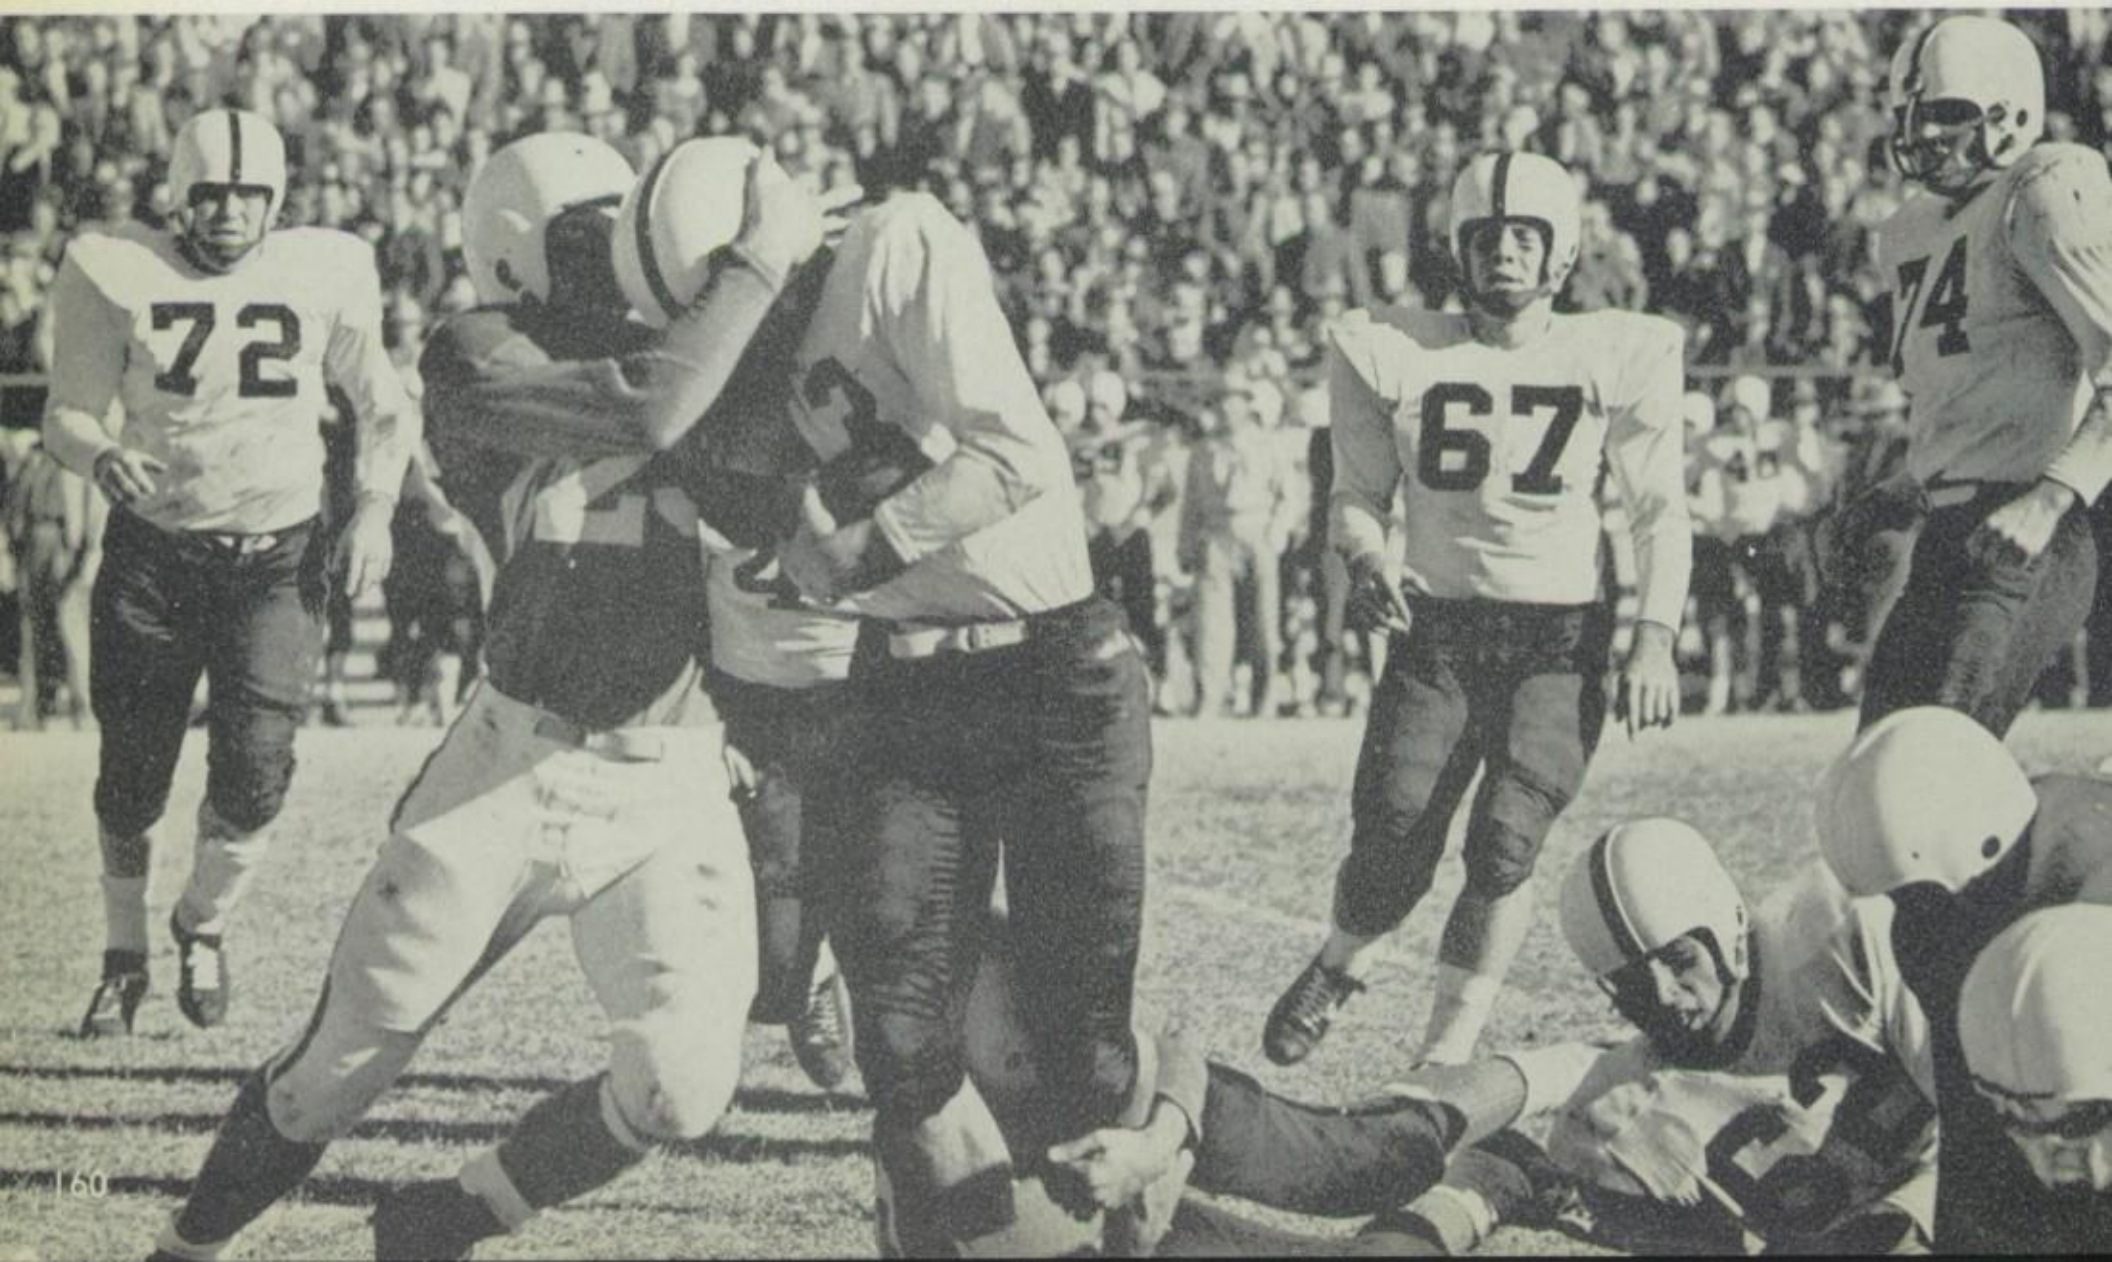
Right: N.D. fans happily congratulate the team amid shouts of "Lubbock, here we come!"

Above: The four N.D. special busses are escorted into Lubbock by two police motorcycles and a squad car, their screaming sirens running all other traffic off the road.

Below: Paul Delfeld and another Bulldog stop Lubbock in midfield during the hard-fought game.



Ernie Manicchia smashes over the goal line for one of the North Dallas T.D.s.

A lonely group waits in the cold for the bandroom to be opened after the long trip home.

Mr. Sponseller sleepily untangles some of the band equipment.

With sincere appreciation for his untiring efforts to better the North Dallas corps and his sympathetic understanding of all our problems, large and small, we gratefully dedicate the Military Section of the VIKING to Captain Joe M. RIFLE TEAM

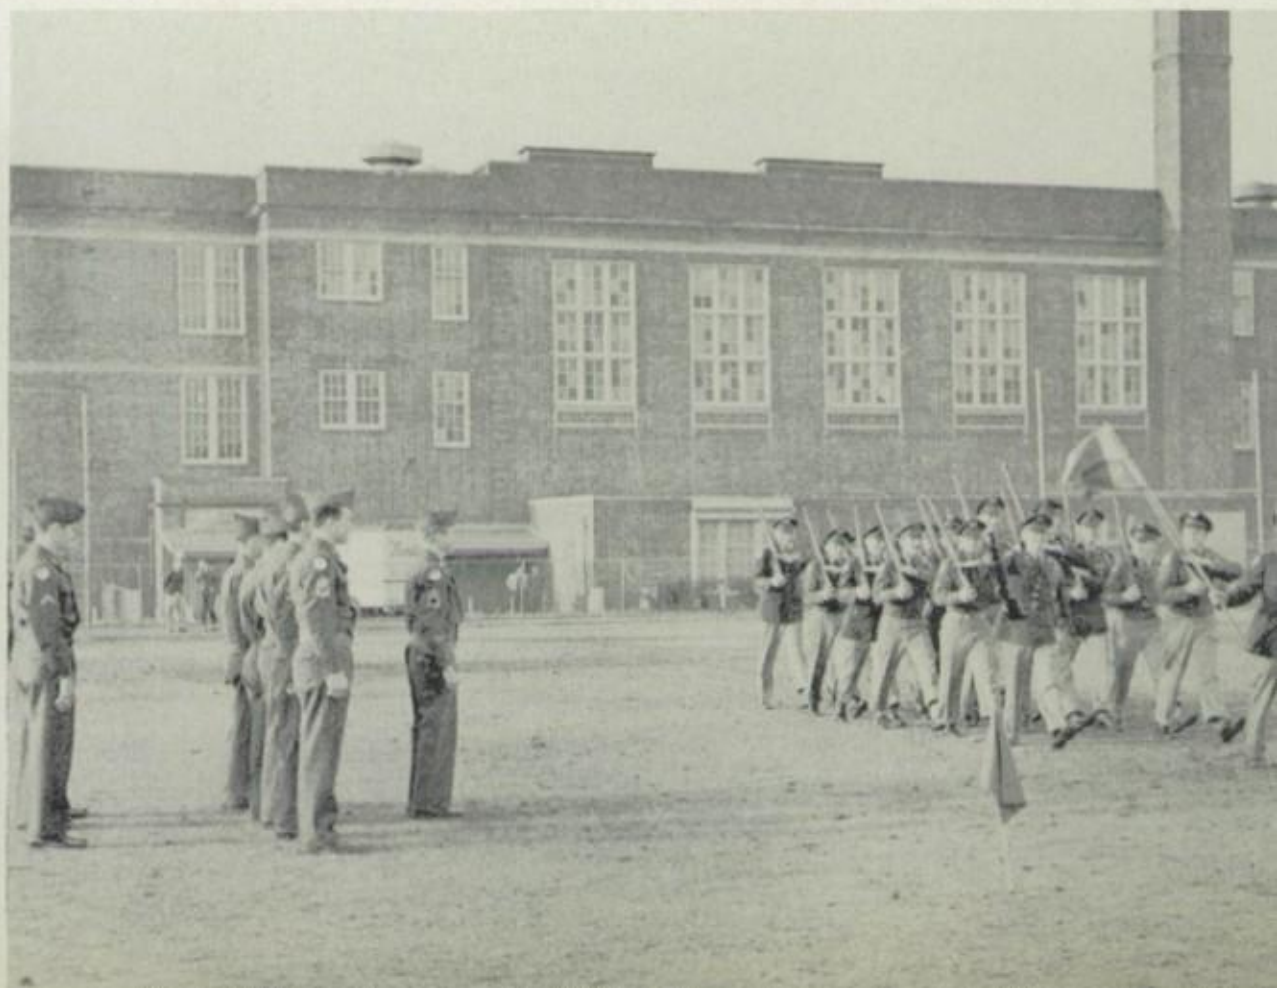
First row: Capt. Jim Tinsley, 1st Lt. Eugene Coleman, Cpl. Lawrence Toth, Pfc. William Slocum, Pfc. Richard Crane, Capt. Harold Ratcliff, Sgt. Wren, coach.
Second row: Pfc. Mac Norris, Pfc. Arthur Kreuger, Sgt. Larry Pankey, Pfc. Tommy Losey, Sgt. John Stradley.

NON-COM PARADE

Once a year, the non-coms take over the regular Tuesday morning parade. The officers form "F" Company to let their hair down.

Proudly carrying the Girls' Military guidon, Bob Oehler assists Company Commander John Scott in matters of military discipline.

The pass in review for Sgt. Bill Mathias' Regimental Staff loses some of its usual dignity in this morning of madness.



Lt. Col. Ross Meyer forms the North Dallas Crack Platoon just before half-time at the N.D.-Forest football game.

"Forward, MARCH!" barks Lt. Col. Meyer, launching a chain reaction of fancy drill movements, including a four-volley rifle salute and . . .

. . . the very impressive Queen Anne Salute, winding up a fine exhibition of close-order drill.

CAMP DALLAS COMPANY

Kneeling: Jack Chewning, C.O.
First row: Tommy Chancellor, Jim Tinsley, Jack Swann, Bob Jiminez, Robert Waldman, Bobby Shakno, Frank Cinatl, Ross Meyer, Flip Hall, Fred Kahn, Jimmy McGowan, Billy Maples.
Second row: Howard Thompson, Bruce Cunningham, Ben Brown, Charles McCullough, John Ferguson, Richard LaSance, Mike Koehler, Vanoy Tidrow, Eugene Coleman, Ted Sandridge.

Harold Ratcliff and Richard LaSance share the "first day at camp" chore of pitching their tent—their home for the next twenty-eight days.

John Ferguson reflects his distate for weed-pulling in the direction of the VIKING photographer.

Of course, Camp Dallas is not all work and no play. Company Commander Jack Chewning finds time to play softball with his company. He misses a high throw, right, but snags the next one, below, as Bill Cobb and Tom Harris look on.

Left: Jim Willness discovers that a working knowledge of the fine art of sewing on patches is essential at camp.

Right: "There's dust on my low-quarters!" snarls Chewning, and another plebe bites the dust while J. C. Oehler and Frank Cinatl smile approvingly. (P.S. Oehler really didn't stab him.)

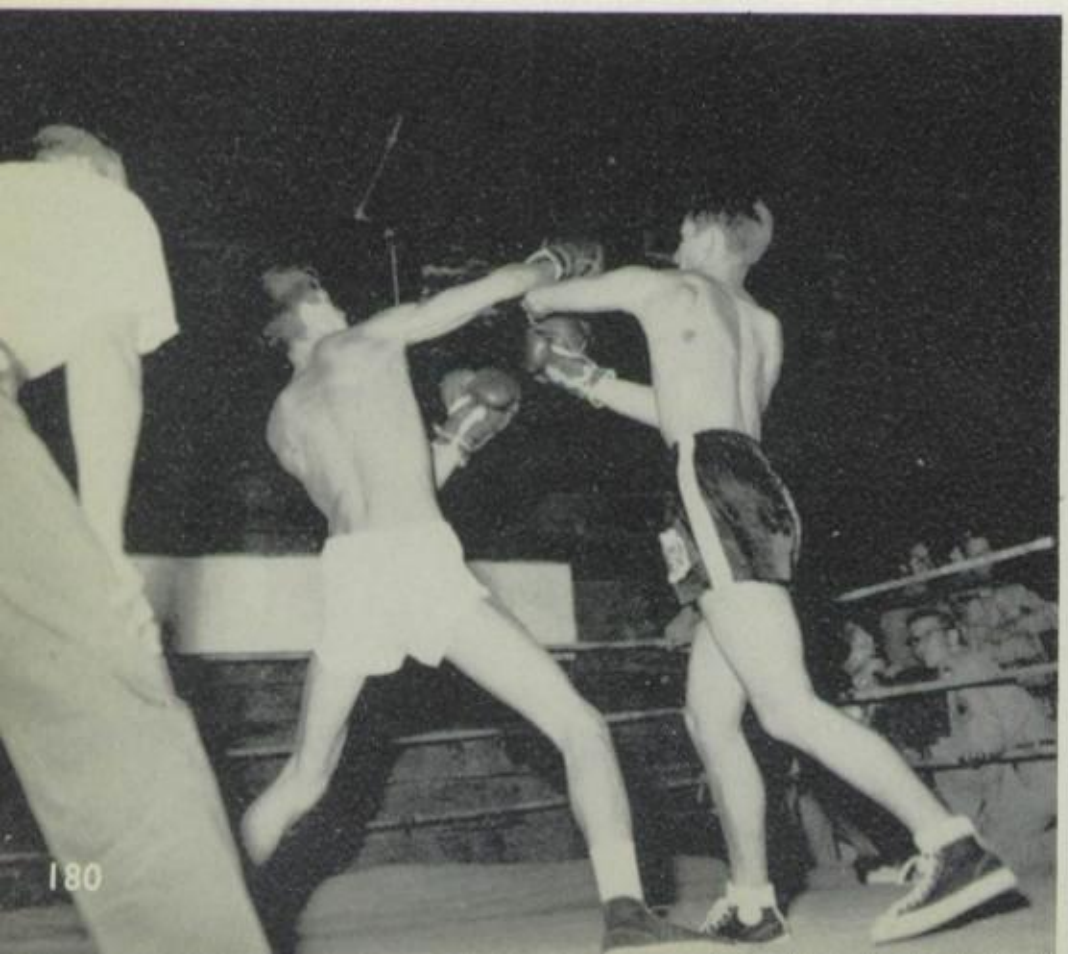
An unidentified boxer throws some hard punches at Jack Chewning.

Inter-Company Boxing at Camp Dallas

Jim McGall trades punches with an opponent from D. Company.



AFTER THE FIGHTS

Kneeling: Frank Cinatl, Jack Chewning.
Standing: Jim McGall, Jim Tinsley, Capt. Joe Hill, Tommy Chancellor.

The Regimental Staff watches the review . . .

. . . including North Dallas' E Company . . .

The Regimental Color Guard.

One of the most impressive ceremonies of the North Dallas R.O.T.C. is the raising of the flag, performed each Tuesday after parade.

The five companies form a square around the flag and are given present arms by the Regimental Commander, upper left. Then, as the Military Band plays the National Anthem, upper right, Old Glory rises to her position overlooking the campus.

Mrs. Branson assists Pat Conway and Ed Copley in selection of their Balfour Senior ring.

Our new Dodge from Nichols has "scat power"

"WOW" that's all I could say when I first drove our new '53 Dodge. I fell in love with it the first time the folks at Nichols took us for a demonstration ride . . . those big roomy seats, and that big, 140 h.p. "Red Ram" engine . . . well, I just wanted to shout when Dad said he had gotten the most phenomenal trade in for our old bus . . . better than he ever imagined he would. I'm convinced they mean it when they say "You can trade with Nichols and save dollars."

Supplement

Above: The Senior class enters the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church to attend the Baccalaureate services.

Below: The Commencement exercises on June 4. 1953, held at the First Baptist Church. conclude the first important chapter in the lives of 196 Seniors.

Dr. W. T. White, Superintendent of Dallas Public Schools, delivers the graduation address.

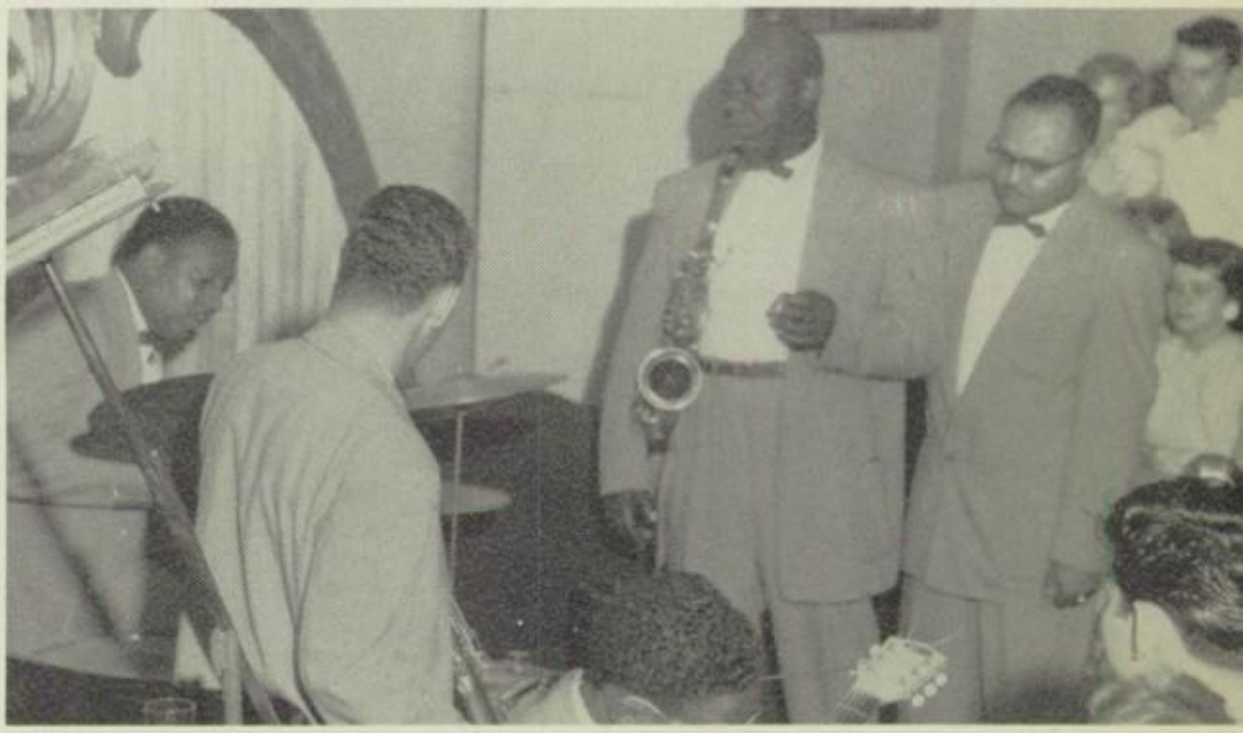
Salutatorian

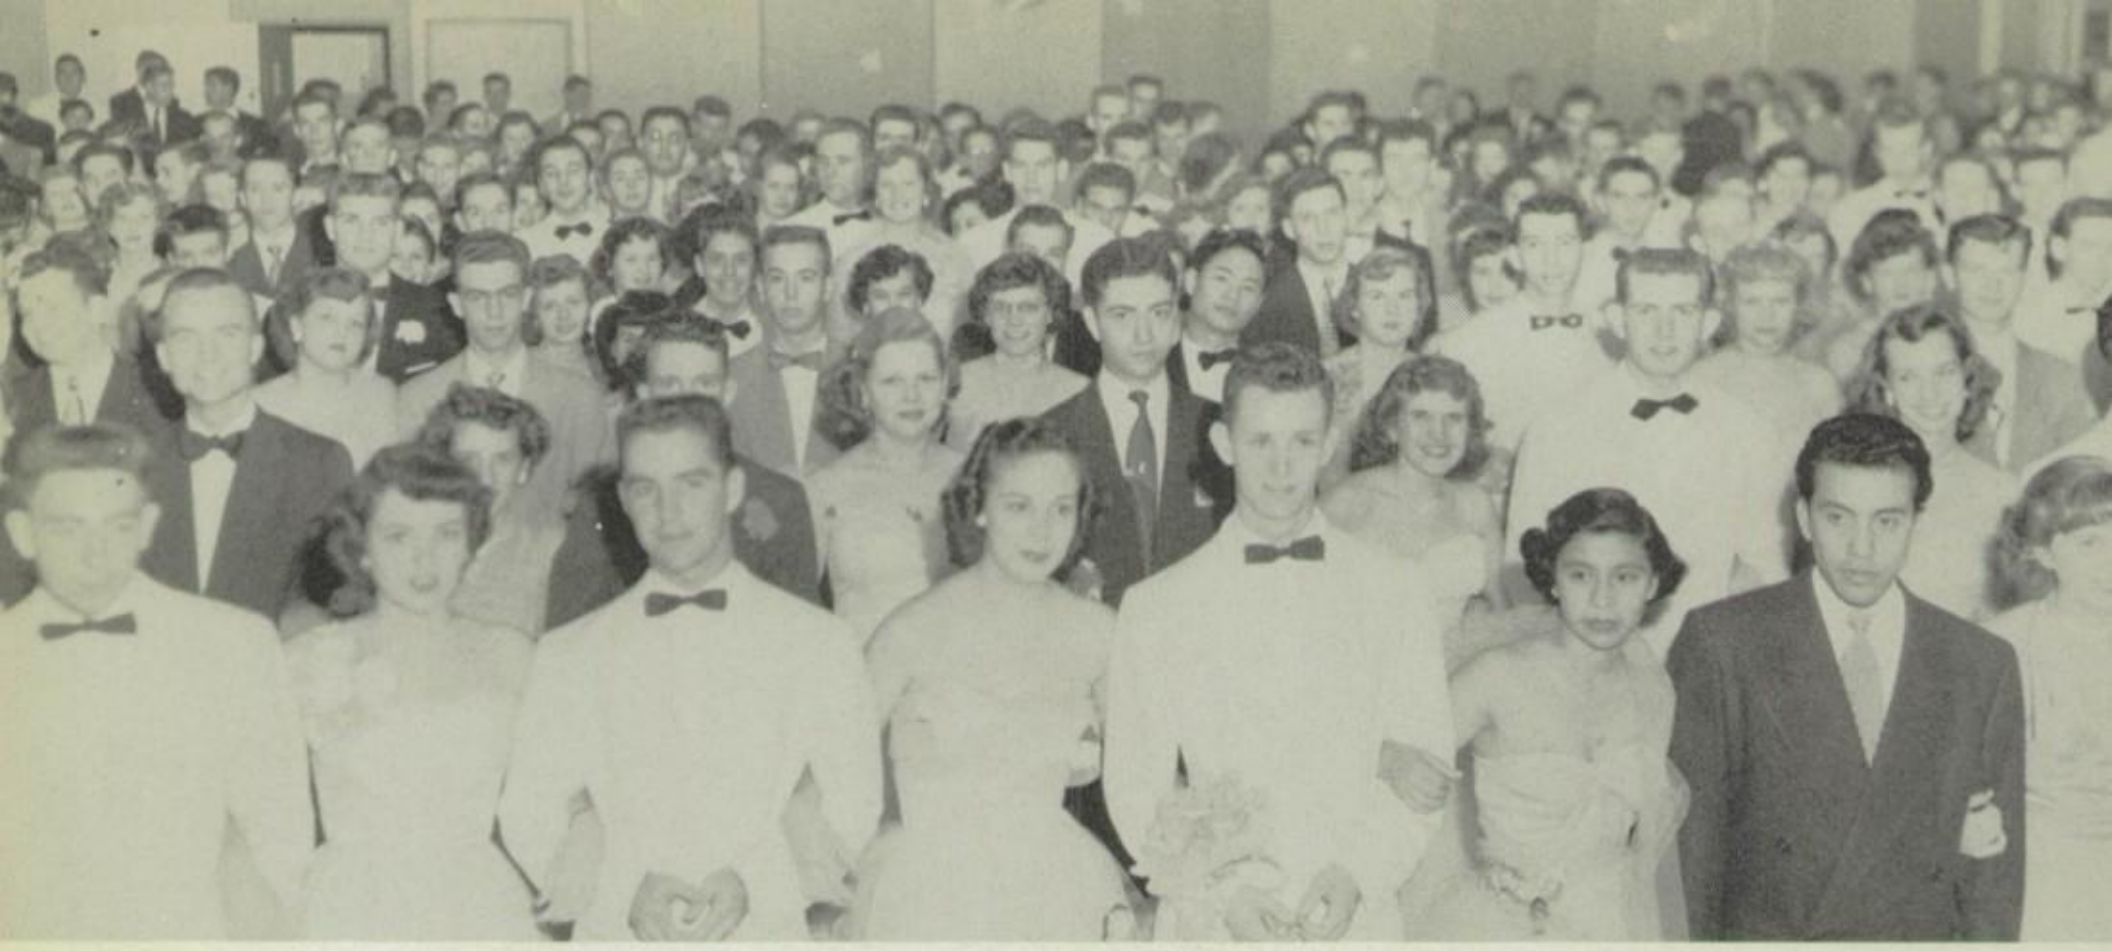
At the beginning of a gala evening, Pat Conway gets her hand stamped for identification purposes.



Red Calhoun and his band during intermission.

Kelso Chandler, Louie Phillips, Richard Lovier, and all the guests at the all-night party help themselves to plenty of bacon, eggs, and toast, which were served at the 4:30 A.M. breakfast.

The end of a perfect Senior year.



Grand march of the Senior Prom held May 16, 1953, at the Park Cities Y.

SENIOR PLAY

Men Are Like Streetcars

Above: "Maudie, your father!" shouts Ed Copley at Beverly Ballou in a tense moment of the play.

THE SENIOR ASSEMBLY

An outstanding part of the assembly was the famous marching band.

One of the marching band's many "spectacular" formations, a salute to Iowa. Other formations honored Idaho, Illinois, and Indiana.

Contestants Arlen Stewart and Jean Fuller collect their winnings from the "little red bird" (Janet Ewert) as quizmaster Bill Banister looks on.

The Seniors fill the stage at the end of the assembly to sing the Alma Mater.

The cheerleader campaign gets off to a bang with this early morning crowd of campaigners at O. S.'s.

Here comes the Cone-Cunningham wagon again with Liz James blasting away on the trombone.

With election time drawing near the halls are jammed with posters.

Even during the tryouts, demonstrations spring up throughout the auditorium.

After a feverish wait while the votes were counted and recounted the names of the 1953-54 cheerleaders were finally announced. Right: Jo Ann Young, Judy Pfaffenroth, Joyce Schnoor, and Nancy Cone. Below: Bert Jarvis, Kelly Parks, Bruce Cunningham, and James Squires.

WEIGHT AND JUMP MEN

DISTANCE RUNNERS

SPRINTERS

Right: Smith Murray, Bill Allen, David Abbott, Stanley Maupen, and Ray Fugitt.

BASEBALL TEAM

First row: Benny Harper, James Cramer, Bob Beauchamp, Jim Render, Albert Bain, Ted Sandridge, Billy Travis, Pete Huff, and Charles Allen.
Second row: Mr. Croft, Wayne Thompson, Luther Todd, Larry Green, Mike McKeogh Bobby St. John, Bobby Powell, Luther Bartlett, and John Moore.

Right: Mrs Mabel Davies, and Miss Ruth Pierce, at the faculty luncheon, on July 4, received gifts on the occasion of their retirement.

Cadet 2nd Lt. George Brashear's class on the rifle squad in attack, originally intended to be dramatically demonstrated with blank ammunition in Cole Park, is taught from the sand table because of bad weather.

FEDERAL INSPECTION

Four months of tedious preparation paid big dividends to the North Dallas ROTC Corps as it again earned the right to wear the Honor Star, signifying its high rating in this, the most important of all inspections. Unexpected rain caused the parade, the tactics squad demonstration, and the Crack Platoon performance to be cancelled. However, an inclement weather schedule, prepared by Plans and Training Officer Cadet Capt. John Ferguson, was put into effect and the inspection, held in the gymnasium, was carried out without a flaw.

Just before the arrival of the inspecting officers, Major Brown gives last minute briefing to the Military Organization class taught by Cadet 2nd Lt. Bill Mathias.

During the exam period of this first aid class, Cadet Pvt. Kel Conner explains the methods used to prevent shock as Capt. Warner listens intently.

Above right: A long awaited moment arrives as Sue Capps, escorted by Cadet M/Sgt. Jerry Campbell, is crowned Queen at the Military Ball, held March 28. The princesses and their escorts are (clockwise): Gail Palmer and Cadet Major Bill Cobb; Susan Mara and Cadet 2nd Lt. Bill Mathias; Pat Clark and Cadet Sgt. 1/cl Pete Huff; Earlene Chapman and Cadet Capt. Eugene Coleman; Pat Conway and Cadet Capt. Jim Tinsley; Schautze Morris and Cadet Lt. Col. Bob Oehler.

Right: Five pictures in one portray a few of the thoughts running rampant through the mind of a brand new 2nd Lt. The dividend of long hours of study, hard work, and officers' Candidate School comes when, after seemingly endless waiting, you see your name on the promotion order from Colonel Brock's office (center). Suddenly, the whole regiment is on top of you, cheerfully shouting "Pokes!" as they beat your arms numb (lower left). Eating your lunch the day the order is posted is quite an event, in that tradition requires that every new "shavetail" drink seven full glasses of water with his meal (lower right). But, as you proudly return your first salute at school the next day, after having discarded your old high-tops and shined your new low-quarters, you decide, as have many others before you—it's really worth working for!
